ANTI-CORRUPTION COMPLIANCE EXECUTIVE ROUNDTABLE SERIES 2014

The Red Flag Group is hosting a series of executive roundtables across the world. These events focus on practical steps compliance executives can follow when developing, implementing and refining anti-corruption programmes, including how to:

- gain buy-in for your anti-corruption programme
- develop a targeted and risk-based compliance programme
- conduct effective risk assessments
- enhance your third-party due diligence programme.

Time: 9.00 am to 1.30 pm (registration starts at 8.30 am). Lunch will be provided.

Why Attend? A Different Approach for Improved Learning

- Our executive roundtables, led by Scott Lane, Executive Chairman of The Red Flag Group, use a unique hands-on approach, focusing on group exercises and discussion for an improved learning experience
- Thorough examinations of real-life compliance scenarios challenge executives to leverage their existing skills, and the skills of others, to develop practical solutions
- Moderated group discussions encourage peer learning, offering detailed insight that larger, presentation-based conferences and seminars cannot offer
- An interactive approach makes it easier for delegates to fully absorb and understand new information in a practical context, leaving them fully equipped to immediately put their new skills to use

FACILITATOR BIOGRAPHY

Scott Lane, Executive Chairman of The Red Flag Group, has over 15 years' experience in legal, compliance, internal audit, export control, ethics and corporate governance, providing counselling and advice to senior management throughout the world in the development of legal and compliance practices. Scott has worked as a senior director and general counsel in various multinational companies in Australia, the United Kingdom and Hong Kong, and has significant experience in complex compliance issues. Scott has led training sessions on compliance, corporate governance, director duties, anti-trust compliance and anti-corruption compliance in multiple countries.
